It's Time For A Vacation! Don't Leave Your Budget Behind

Summer time is traditionally vacation time for many families. This year, you may be looking for ways to break away without breaking your budget. Here are some helpful tips:

- STAY CLOSE TO HOME. The "staycation" is becoming a popular option! You could visit local landmarks or attractions, choose a destination that is within driving distance, or camp out in your own back yard.
- SHOP FOR TRAVEL BARGAINS ONLINE. There are lots of discount travel sites, with package deals for all kinds of destinations. Try www.kayak.com, www.getawaytoday.com, www.travelzoo.com or www.lastminutetravel.com.
- CONSIDER A CONDO. If you're traveling with a large group, sharing a condo could help you save quite a bit. You'll also have the option of cooking some meals to save on restaurant bills.
- SEE US FOR A VACATION LOAN. This is an easy way to pay for your entire trip. We offer low fixed rates and affordable monthly payments. You can apply in person or online at www.mintvalleyfcu.org.

Feeling The Squeeze? We Can Help.

Over the past couple years we have watched as the prices of everyday expenses have continued to rise. Whether your budget is being squeezed by gas, groceries or inflated loans, we want our members to remember, that as a member of Mint Valley Federal Credit Union, you have resources available to help you through these tough economic times.

Now may be the perfect time to bring your current mortgage, vehicle loan or personal loan to us. We may be able to save you hundreds, even thousands, of dollars over the term of your loan. You can even apply for a debt consolidation loan or a home equity loan to pay off other expensive debt, which could give your monthly budget a break and leave more room for everyday expenses.

Taking advantage of your credit union membership during these challenging times is easy. Let Mint Valley Federal Credit Union take care of you. Just give us a call or stop by and let us know how we can serve you.
